

RHYMES OF AN HOUR

Songs from Pop and Jazz

In Rhymes of an Hour, their actual programme, the four Berlin based singers of niniwe widely known for their top-class, innovative vocal music, once again prove that they reject the idea of being limited by genres.

In this programme, pop songs like Blood, Sweat and Tears' "Spinning Wheel" or Sting's "I Burn for You" stand next to lyrical ballads like Leonard Cohen's "Hallelujah" and charming jazz classics by Nina Simone or Nancy Wilson, complemented by Brazilian grooves and sophisticated originals.

With elements of jazz, classical music, pop and world music melt into a modern sound, energetic and sensuous at the same time, which always goes for the authentic.

As usual, this often-times decorated ensemble (Graz, Tampere and Taipei, amongst others) satisfies with virtuosity and artful arrangements.
